

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Waabnoong Bemjiwang Association of First Nations is looking for a highly motivated and skilled FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT ADVISOR to keep the books for the association and provide financial advice and assistance to member First Nations.

Supervisor: Tribal Council Executive Director

Hours of Work: 35 hours per week from Monday to Friday between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Able to work extra hours and able to flex time to accommodate meetings and obligations outside of normal office hours.

Salary: To be determined.

Role: Perform the day to day financial operations of the Tribal Council in a professional manner to ensure accuracy and compliance with accepted accounting principles and ensures compliance with the policy and administrative objectives of the Tribal Council and government regulations; provide direction, guidance, support and capacity building in financial management services for all Tribal Council First Nations; provide analysis of government (First Nation, Federal and Provincial) legislation, regulations and policies that affect the finances of Tribal Council member First Nations.

Closing Date: March 2, 2012 at 12:00 p.m.

Please send resume including 3 references and your CPIC to: Willard Noganosh, WBAFN Executive Director at 705-857-0442 or wnogan@wbafn.com. Interested applicants may request a full job description. Preference will be given to applicants of native ancestry.

Interested applicants may contact Willard Noganosh, Executive Director at (705) 857-0442 for a complete job description.